

Dedication

To the readers of The Milky Way I offer this quotable.

The width of the narrow way is measured by the milk.

The path for believers – this life we live as pilgrims here on earth, the great journey we travel in time and in character transformation, is only as wide as are the six doctrines of Christ, Hebrews 6:1-3. Because, as you know, these doctrines are the spiritual milk that Father prepared for His children. And if drank, builds our core, establishing that our base always remains on Christ.

How much we focus on these principles determines the depth and strength of the path produced. Ponder that please. But the width of the path is only as wide as the milk allows.

Six principles of Christ define the limits – the edges. The path itself stretches out before you toward eternity because He is eternal. Now that you have the milk, don't fool yourself or allow anyone else.

Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide [is] the gate, and broad [is] the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait [is] the gate, and narrow [is] the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

Matthew 7:13-14

The narrow way is a troubled way full of tribulation and challenge, because, the three enemies of your soul (the world in which we travel, our renegade flesh nature, and Satan) will never willingly bow to Christ, so certainly not to His six principle foundational doctrines. Walk the way and overcome!
